ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Mengistu Zarzar (Zarzar) (Filing No. 27). Zarzar seeks additional time in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Zarzar's counsel represents that Zarzar will file an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Zarzar's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted and the pretrial motion deadline will be extended as to all defendants.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Zarzar's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 27) is granted. All defendants are given until on or before July 6, 2009, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between June 8, 2009 and July 6, 2009, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 8th day of June, 2009.
